The Festival of our Joy

The Marriage of the Lamb is come

This day is a moed - an appointment with God (Exodus 23:15). It is the day to set aside our weekly work and play to have a mikrah kodesh - a solemn assembly to worship Yeshua with Torah study (Leviticus 23:2-3). It is a day we distinguish by lighting no fires between Erev Sukkot and Havdalah (after day end) candle lightings (Ezekiel 20:20, Exodus 35:3).

Combined Service for Eve of Sukkot and First Night

This service should start at least a half hour before sunset.

Lighting the Festival Candles

Ba—rukḥ A—tah, Yāh—weh E—lo—hei—nu, Me—lekh ha—o—lam,
We praise Your name, Yāh—weh our God, and King of all the world,

A—sher qid'—sha—nu b'mitz'—vo—tav, v'tzi—va—nu I' had'liq neir shel— Yom Tov.
Who sanc—ti—fied us by Your Word, and taught us to kindle lights for the Ho—ly Day.

by Nancy Santiago © Messianic Ewe Productions CCLI License #68174

Festival candles are lighted before sunset on the beginning day of the Festival. The blessing is said after candle lighting.

Thus, we symbolically
sanctify the Holy Day (Yom Tov).

Candle Lighting Song

by Nancy Santiago © Messianic Ewe Productions CCLI License #68174

1. See the Shabbat candles burning bright, Flickering so softly in the night.
2. See the Shabbat candles softly glow, By their strong and steady flame we know,
3. See the Shabbat candles burn and burn, Just as in our hearts our spirits yearn.

Tel—ling us Ye—shu—a is the light of the world,<sup>1</sup>
 By our be—ing lights we, too, can show— the world,
 For the day Ye—shu—a will re—turn to this world,

Ev—en in the darkness, ev—en in the nighttime, Ye—shu—a is the light of the world.
 Ev—en in the darkness, ev—en in the nighttime, Ye—shu—a is the light of the world.
 Then there'll be no darkness, then there'll be no nighttime, Ye—shu—a is the light of the world.

Then there'll be no darkness, then there'll be no nighttime, Ye—shu—a is the light of the world.

Family Blessings

The father puts his hands on the head of each son and daughter (and the mother may also), and blesses each one. The husband and wife then put their hands, respectively, on each other's head and say blessings. These blessings may be spontaneous or patterned after the traditional ones below.

For the sons:

Genesis 48:14-16

May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.
May our Father in heaven instill in your heart His love and reverence.
May Yahweh bless you and safeguard you and make peace for you.
(Ephraim and Manasseh were raised in Egypt - a type of the world of sin - but remained faithful to their parents and their faith, not yielding to peer pressure.)

For the daughters:

Ruth 4:11

May God make you like Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah.
May our Father in heaven instill in your heart His love and reverence.
May Yahweh bless you and safeguard you and make peace for you.
(Sarah was a woman of courage; her response to adversity was laughter.
Rebecca is a model of hospitality and human concern.
Rachael and Leah model being their sisters' keepers, showing real sisterhood.)

For the wife:

Proverbs 31:10-31

An excellent wife, who can find? For her worth is far above jewels.
The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain.
She does him good and not evil all the days of her life....
She opens her mouth in wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.
She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
Her children rise up and bless her; her husband also, and he praises her, saying:
"Many daughters have done nobly, but you excel them all."
Charm is deceitful and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears Yahweh, she shall be praised.
Give her the product of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

For the husband:

Psalms 112

Praise Yahweh! How blessed is the man who fears Yahweh,
Who greatly delights in His commandments.
His descendants will be mighty on earth;
The generation of the upright will be blessed.
Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.
Light arises in the darkness for the upright;
He is gracious and compassionate and righteous.

Sh'ma Hear!

Leader: Bar'chu et Yah-weh Ham'vorakh.
Bless Yahweh Who is to be praised.

Congregation: Ba-rukhh Yah-weh Ham'vorakh l'o-lam va-ed.
Blessed be Yahweh, Who is praised for all eternity.

All: Sh'ma Yis'-ra-el, Yah-weh E-lo-hei-nu, Yah-weh E-chad. Ba-rukhh Shem kh'vod mal'chu-to l'o-lam va-ed. A-men.
(whisper)

All: Hear, O Is-ra-el, Yah-weh our God is one. Blessed be the Name of the Lord - Whose glo-ri-ous king-dom's for-ever!
(whisper)

M. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy heart...
W. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy heart;

M. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy soul...
W. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy soul;

M. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy mind...
W. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy mind;

M. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy strength...
W. Thou shalt love Yah-weh thy God with all of thy strength;

Cong.: Hear, O Is-ra-el!

Congregation:

*And these words, which I am instructing you today, shall be on your heart;
and you shall teach them diligently to your children,
and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way,
and when you lie down and when you rise up.
And you shall bind them as a sign on your hand,
and they shall be as frontals on your forehead;
and you shall write them on the doorposts of your house, and on your gates.<sup>1</sup>*

And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love Yahweh your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your corn, and your wine, and your oil.

*And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle, that you may eat and be full.
Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; And then Yahweh's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest you perish quickly from off the good land which Yahweh gives you.*

*Therefore shall you lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.
And you shall teach them your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.
And you shall write them upon the door posts of your house, and upon your gates:
that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Yahweh swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.<sup>2</sup>*

Dwelling in the Sukkah

“Whoever did not see the rejoicing (of this feast) never saw rejoicing in his lifetime.”

Mishnah: Sukkah 5:1

Inviting Guests

A special chair is traditionally placed in the sukkah for exalted guests - such as Abraham, Moses, etc. At Yeshua’s Sukkot celebration we see Moses and Elijah present.

Matthew 17:1-5 ...Yeshua took Peter, James, and John his brother, and brought them up into a high mountain apart, and was transfigured before them: and His face shone as the sun, and His raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with Him. Then answered Peter, and said to Yeshua, “Lord, it is good for us to be here: if You will, let us make here three tabernacles; one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” While he yet spoke, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear Him.”

We also invite the poor to join with us.

Leader: | Welcome, guests! Be seated; in sukkot you shall dwell.

Proclaiming our Purpose

Leader: | Behold, we are prepared and ready to perform the commandment of sukkot as the Creator, blessed be His Name, instructed us: “In sukkot you shall dwell for seven days; every citizen of Israel shall dwell in sukkot; in order that your generations may know that I caused the Children of Israel to dwell in sukkot when I brought them forth from the land of Egypt.” (Leviticus 23:42-43)

We fully trust that in bringing us forth from the land of sin. God will preserve us in His temporary tabernacle (sukkah) before bringing us to our final destination — the Garden of Eden (Paradise) on the New Earth.

Psalm 90:17 May the pleasantness of Yahweh our God be upon us — may He establish our handiwork for us.

Congregation: | May it be Your will, Yahweh our God and God of our forefathers, that You cause Your presence to reside among us; that You spread over us the sukkah of Your peace. Let us dwell under the sheltering protection of Your wings in the day when You rain coals of fire upon the wicked. Blessed are You, Yahweh our God, Who has instructed us to dwell in the shelter of a sukkah.

Sanctifying Sukkot

All who do not recite in unison should say "Amen" after each blessing.

Sh'moneh Es'reih Eighteen

The Sh'moneh Es'reih (Eighteen Benedictions) is the manner of prayer said three times a day by devout Jews, as David did evening, morning, and noon<sup>1</sup>, and as Daniel did at the cost of being thrown to the lions<sup>2</sup>. Its original formulation is attributed to the Great Assembly of Ezra's time, with the introduction, conclusion, (and a nineteenth blessing) being added later. It is also called the Amidah (Standing), as it is said in a standing position. Yeshua's prayer instruction to His disciples follows this pattern<sup>3</sup>. This translation is rendered according to the order of Yeshua's listing, with Messianic clarifications added in bold.

(A prayer to the one who is ruler of all, who desires repentance, and is faithful to raise the dead.)

Water Drawing Service

Done all seven days

Drawing Out Living Waters

On each of the seven days of Sukkot, the High Priest took a golden pitcher and filled it with water drawn from the Pool of Siloam. It was brought into the Temple through the Water Gate (hence the name), and poured into a bowl at the Altar, alongside the pouring of the wine, during the daily burnt-offering (Talmud: Sukkah 4:9). This water libation was performed only during Sukkot.

The Talmud states, “Why is the name of it called the Drawing Out of Water? Because of the pouring out of the Holy Spirit, according to what is said: ‘With joy shall ye draw out of the wells of salvation.’” (Isaiah 12:3)

Hoshannah Rabbah (Seventh Day)

Now on the last day, the great day of the feast, Yeshua stood and cried out, saying, “If any man is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink. “He who believes in Me, as the Scripture said, ‘From his innermost being shall flow rivers of living water.’” But this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; for the Spirit was not yet given, because Yeshua was not yet glorified. (John 7:37-39)

Waving the Lulav

Done all seven days except Weekly Sabbath(s), then skip to bottom of page.

1 Chronicles 16:33-35 Then shall the trees of the forest sing joyfully before Yahweh, for He will have come to judge the earth. Give thanks to Yahweh for He is good; for His loving-kindness is eternal.

Etrog

Blessing for Waving the Lulav:

All: Blessed are You, Yahweh our God, King of the universe, Who has sanctified us by His Word, and instructed us to take the lulav; and blessed are You Who has instructed us to sing Hallel.

Beating the Lulav on 7th Day:

In some traditions, the Lulav is beaten on the ground five times after the Hoshannah Rabbah (seventh day) service in which it is waved.

Instructions for Waver

The Etrog is held out with the left hand, close to the Lulav, with stem down. The Lulav (three branches unfolded) is held with the right hand. It is held with outstretched arm and shaken enough to rustle the leaves as it is drawn in toward one's self. This is done three times in each of six directions, while facing east. For example, it is held out forward and shaken as it is drawn in (from the dawn) and then back over one's head and shaken as it is drawn in (to the setting sun).

Note: Psalm 113 (The Great Hallel) - next page - is sung during the waving.

On Weekly Sabbath(s) substitute:

All: Blessed are You, Yahweh our God, King of the universe, Who has sanctified us by His Word, and instructed us to sing Hallel.

The Birth of Yeshua (Jesus)

Messiah's birth, about AM 3750 - 3756 (10-4 BC), was expectantly awaited<sup>1</sup> because within about 40 years Daniel's prophecy concerning Him<sup>2</sup> must be fulfilled.

The prophet Micah wrote that He was destined to be born in Beit-Lechem (Bethlehem) — the House of Bread.<sup>3</sup> (God called Him the Bread from Heaven,<sup>4</sup> though men say Manna<sup>5</sup> — What is It?) It was because of this prophecy that King Herod had the children of Beit-Lechem killed, to protect his throne against the coming promised king.

The rabbis who translated the Septuagint<sup>6</sup> taught from the prophet Isaiah that He would be bom of a virgin<sup>7</sup> and would be called Immanuel — God with Us.

In the expected time and place, on the Festival of Sukkot,* in a sukkah (tabernacle, temporary dwelling) where Passover lambs were raised in the city of the shepherd David, a Son was bom to a virgin descended from that Messiah David.<sup>8</sup> At an angel's command,<sup>9</sup> He was named Yeshua<sup>10</sup>, meaning "Salvation." God would dwell with us in a sukkah of humanity that would be bruised by the serpent, then crush that old serpent!

*The apostle Yochanan (John) tells us that the Word (of God) became flesh and "dwelt in a sukkah" (tabernacled) among us.<sup>11</sup>

When Zekharya (Zechariah) was ministering in the temple, he received an announcement from God of a coming son. The second course of Abia,<sup>12</sup> when Zekharya was ministering, was the week of Sivan 12 to 18. If Zekharya's promised son Yochanan (John the baptizer) were conceived soon thereafter, then Yeshua's conception, which was six months later, would be late Kislev to early Tevet, near Chanukah (the Feast of Dedication); His birth would thence be at mid-Tishrei, the Feast of Sukkot (Tabernacles).

The month of Tishrei (in the fall) also fits with the season of shepherds being out with their flocks by night, as they were when Yeshua was born; during winter the lambs are kept indoors.

The Birth of Yeshua (continued)

Later in His life, Yeshua celebrated His birthday on a mountain with three of His disciples.<sup>13</sup>

In contrast to birthday parties, such as Herod's,<sup>14</sup> where people were killed for entertainment, His was a celebration of life. On the Festival of Sukkot, Moses and Elijah, from centuries past, representatives of the Torah and the Prophets, appeared and talked with Yeshua. One disciple, Kepha (Peter), suggested building three sukkot for Yeshua, Moses, and Elijah, because it was required for the festival, but he did not understand<sup>15</sup> that these three were fulfilling that which the festival symbolized: they were dwelling in their sukkot (temporary tabernacles) of flesh, awaiting their eternal resurrection temples.

Leviticus 23:36-37 On the eighth day you shall have a solemn assembly and present an offering by fire to Yahweh; it is an assembly. You shall do no laborious work. These are the appointed times of Yahweh which you shall proclaim as solemn assembly, to present offerings by fire to Yahweh.

If Yeshua were born on the first day of Sukkot, then this Eighth Day would be the time of His circumcision and naming.

Luke 2:21 And when eight days were completed for His circumcision. His name was then called Yeshua, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

Light of the World

At the end of the first day of the Feast, twelve golden bowls were placed upon three eighty foot high golden candlesticks. These were set up in the Temple's Court of Women, with a ladder rested against each bowl. A youth of priestly descent stood at the top of each ladder, pouring oil from a ten-gallon pitcher into the bowl.<sup>2</sup> The worn-out liturgical garments of Priests were used for wicks. The light from these candlesticks was so bright that it was stated, "There was no courtyard in Jerusalem that was not lit up with the light at the water-well ceremony."<sup>3</sup>

Yeshua spoke publicly on Sukkot, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows Me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life."
